Today's game—Savage Pumping Station vs. Aloumis at 5:30 p.m.

In the first game of the double-header yesterday at the Capital City League Park the St. Stephen's nosed out the Navy Yard crew in an exciting eleven-inning battle by the score 5 to 4.

The game proved to be a pitcher's battle between "Mabugh" and Gonnatti, the former having a shade better of the argument as he was only touched up for five hits and walked three to his rival's six singles and four passes.

The Machinists started off like winners, making one run in the second and three more in the third. After this fatal session the game tightened up wonderfully and the holders held their opponents down to three safeties and runless for the remainder of the game.

"Shorty" Hughes, the Sunday School League pitcher, who played with his old teammates yesterday for the first time in two years, proved to be the hero of the day. "Shorty" conned safely three times, his last clutch driving in the winning tally, and accepted twelve chances without a fumble.
